BOOTHBAY HARBOR, MAINE

All-Saints-by-the-Sea Chapel on Southport shore of Harbor, reached by land or water. Boat HOLIDAY now carrying passengers to services. Built 1905 on property deeded by Miss Mary Williamson of Gardiner.

Dear Sadie Mae, This place is great - The picture is of David's church - haven't seen it yet but hope to soon. This is the most relaxing place and all I do is yawn. Had a fun time in New York with Sally. Still haven't made up my mind whether I'll make the big move. See you in about ten days. Love to all Eleanor.
